

ASIAN EXCELLENCE AWARDS

MAY 16, 2007 ROYCE HALL UCLA LOS ANGELES, CA

A STAR-STUDED EXTRAVAGANZA TELEVISED TO OVER 100 MILLION HOMES ACROSS AMERICA

E Now in its 6th extraordinary year, the Asian Excellence Awards is the most prestigious and only nationally televised event celebrating the achievements of the Asian and Asian American community in film, television, and music. Awards are also given to remarkable individuals outside of these disciplines who have made a deep and historic impact on our national culture. The 2007 show will premiere on E! Entertainment in honor of Asian Pacific American Heritage Month, followed by a broadcast on Comcast's AZN Television, making the Asian Excellence Awards the most broadly televised Asian American program in history. Partial proceeds from the event will support select Asian American non-profits. Media and red carpet coverage include: E! News Live, Access Hollywood, Variety, Hollywood Reporter, US Weekly, In Style, The New York Times, and more!

"The most prestigious and most fun event of its kind."
- TONY AWARD-WINNING PLAYWRIGHT DAVID HENRY HWANG
